The Council desire it to be understood that in giving publicity to the Papers read before the Institute, and the discussions thereon, they accept no responsibility for the opinions or statements of individual authors.

Fellows of the Institute are earnestly requested to add copies of any photographs of anthropological interest which they may possess, or be able to obtain, to the collection in the library.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Through the generosity of Mr. A. FEATHERMAN, the Anthropological Institute is enabled to announce for gratuitous distribution a limited number of copies of his book, "THOUGHTS AND REFLECTIONS," which contains the results of his anthropological studies, and presents a commentary on the materials embodied in his seven volumes, The Social History of Mankind, most of which are now wholly out of print.

These "THOUGHTS AND REFLECTIONS" form a demy octavo volume of 352 pages, first published in 1894, and will be sent to any address, carriage forward, on receipt of an application addressed on or before October 1st, 1900, to the

Secretary of the Anthropological Institute,

3, Hanover Square, London, W.

In the event of the number of applications exceeding the number of copies which are available for distribution, the Institute reserves to itself the right to determine the mode in which they shall be assigned.
